ENJOY A FALL HIKE, RUN OR WALK

Portland Reservoir Rim Trail

A natural hiking trail that loops around the Portland Reservoir is a nice two mile trail that is well established and is marked with red blazed markers. The first section of the trail takes you along Reservoir Rd. This section of trail takes you along the edge of the reservoir. You enter the next section of the trail as you pass a gate. After the gate you turn right on the Old Marlborough Turnpike (that was used by the early settlers to the area. This trail takes you on along the East side of the reservoir and over the biggest water crossing which is Reservoir Brook. Once you cross Reservoir Brook, hike for a while until you come across a right hand turn. Turn right and quickly come across our second water crossing. This crossing has a foot bridge completed by an Eagle Scout. Continue to hike parallel of the southern bank of the reservoir, you will then come to a fork in the road. At this point follow the fork right. After the fork, you will come to the 3rd and final water crossing. After this crossing, the trail takes you back to the parking area.

Portland Riverfront Park

Enjoy a walk or a hike through Portland's beautiful 40 acre Riverfront Park.
