

Portland Parks and Recreation presents... Unified Theater

Unified Theater is a transformative performing arts program that “dissolves typical barriers between youth” by recruiting young actors and actresses of all abilities to create and perform in a play.

As her Capstone project, Rebecca Tripp has designed a unified theater program for students entering grades 3-5 in the fall of 2018 under Portland Parks and Recreation.

As a team, WE will develop improvisation skills, learn the layout of the theater, build sets and costumes, create skits, and prepare for a culminating play.

By encouraging creative expression and teamwork, Unified Theater is determined to put the “Spotlight on Ability!”
